RENAISSANCE

1. A rebirth; A period of revived intellectual or artistic achievement

Dillard University New Orleans, La. 1987

With the completion of the last few pages, the 1987 edition of Le Diable Bleu will finally be finished. A lot of hard work and time went into the production of this yearbook, and I honestly hope our efforts have been adequately reflected. This year's book is a very special one. It has been almost five years since Dillard University has produced a yearbook. Many faculty members and students felt that it was time for a yearbook and, in conjunction with the Student Government Association, fought hard to get an editor approved. The resurrected Le Diable Bleu is the result of our concerted efforts. Because of this rebirth, the staff chose RENAISSANCE as the title for this year's book. This term is not to be confused with the 14th century renaissance or even the Harlem renaissance of the early 1900's; it is to be used in its most simplistic sense so that one can identify with the word renaissance when thinking of the 1987 issue of Le Diable Bleu. In order not to forget the five years of a lost past and history, we included a section in the yearbook called REFLECTIONS which will include, as best as we could, photographs of students and the Dillard scene between 1982 and 1987.

When I accepted the position of Editor-in-Chief, I did not realize how difficult and time consuming my job would be. I can honestly say that this was the worst semester of my academic career. As I now reflect back, I often wonder how I made it. I do believe that if it were not for the dedication of my staff members, this yearbook probably never would have been completed. I'd like to thank them wholeheartedly for their talents, time, efforts and patience in spite of all the difficulties and pressures of this semester. If no one ever tells you, let me tell you that you were a great staff and I appreciate everything you did for me and this yearbook! I'd also like to thank our advisors, Mr. Marcus Neustadter and Mr. Clifford Johnson for their support and guidance during this difficult undertaking; you are also appreciated. Curt Cox, our sales representative, and Nancy Collins at ICP are also thanked for their assistance during the stages of the yearbook and during our stay in Kansas.

The staff members, as well as myself, produced a quality yearbook. There will be students and faculty members who will have negative comments about this yearbook. I have two things to say in this regard: (1) the yearbook staff did an excellent job given the fact that we only had one semester to complete a 208 page yearbook that usually requires two semesters to complete. To do this and fulfill our academic responsibilities as well is a fantastic accomplishment. Many people felt that our attempts would be in vain. We proved them wrong. So when looking through this yearbook, keep the above statements in mind. (2) I challenge those negative individuals to become active on the yearbook staff in whatever capacity to change or correct what they have problems with. Don't sit back and complain and talk about the quality of the yearbook; get involved and make a difference.

One last note, please do not let this very important historical memento ever die again. Get involved and become enthusiastic. If we as students can do this one simple thing, then Le Diable Bleu is assured never to falter. Congratulations and good luck to the class of 1987! So, sit back, relax, enjoy and remember!

DEDICATION

The staff would like to dedicate the 1987 issue of Le Diable Bleu to the students of Dillard University and all of the past classes which did not have the opportunity to have a yearbook. Please take the time in the future to become a part of the yearbook staff and continue the tradition of a published history. Continue to maintain an avid and active interest in college life and the community and always strive for academic and personal excellence.

Psi Chi National Honor Society in psychology signed its charter on September 4, 1929, in New Haven, Connecticut. It was founded by an aspiring group of young psychologists at the University of Kansas in the spring of 1928.

It is an organization aimed not only at "spotlighting" the achievements of established psychologists, but also reassuring young up and coming psychologists of their academic advancement and or potential.

On May 10, 1973, Dillard University began the 332nd chapter of the Psi Chi National Honor Society.

Psi Chi is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association and a member of The Association of College Honor Societies.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The K. B. Clark Psychology Club was established at Dillard University in 1968. Its founders, the devout group of psychology majors at that time, were concerned with the social well-being of Negroes in their day. Their major thrust was to become more aware of and help to alter the state of the people in the community. They set out to make better the conditions of these people and assist them in attaining an understanding of themselves.

Today, the club is geared at exposing up and coming psychologists to the "real world."

The psychology club was named after the most aspiring young black psychologist of that time, Kenneth B. Clark.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

At the inception of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., founded in 1913 at Howard University, the Founders envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service. These youthful students demonstrated a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence, and cultural enrichment, deemphasizing the social side of sorority life. Their ideas of scholarship and service have withstood the test of time, and today Delta Sigma Theta is a public service Sorority, with over 175,000 members nationally and internationally, dedicated to a program of sharing membership skills and organizational services in the public interest.

This year the Beta Gamma Chapter, founded in 1937, celebrated its fiftieth anniversary. Programs of Beta Gamma include: Just Say No, Wake Up and Live (Fire Prevention), Senior Citizens Project, Annual Red and White Ball, May Week, and various other activities within the community.

KAΨ

Kappa Alpha Psi is the beautiful realization of a vision shared commonly by the late Revered Founder Elder Watson Diggs (Affectionately known as "The Dreamer"), John Milton Lee, Byron K. Armstrong, Guy L. Grant, Ezra D. Alexander, Henry T. Asher, Marcus P. Blakemore, Paul Caine, Edward G. Irvin and George W. Edmunds. It was the vision of these astute men which enabled them in the school year 1910–11, more specifically the night of January 5, 1911, on the campus of Indiana University at Bloomington, Indiana, to sow the seed of a fraternal tree whose fruit is available to, and now enjoyed by, college men everywhere, regardless of their color, religion or national origin. The Constitution of Kappa Alpha Psi is predicated upon, and dedicated to, the principles of achievement through a truly democratic Fraternity.

PHI BETA SIGMA

From the moment of its official inception on January 9, 1914 on the campus of Howard University, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity has sought to return something of value to the community from which it springs. In a very real sense the motto of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity—"Culture for Service and Service for Humanity"—is a daily guidepost by which each Sigma man must measure himself. Our members see themselves as trustees of skills, abilities, ideas and time, and as vehicles through which positive change can be achieved.

Because the depth of our organization extends far beyond the level of an ordinary club or association, a member of Phi Beta Sigma must, as the Good Book says, "Study to show thyself approved . . . a workman that need not be ashamed."

ΖΦΒ

ZETA PHI BETA

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded in 1920 at Howard University by five women who felt that the campus would profit with the development of a sister organization to the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. Zeta Phi Beta has more than 300 undergraduate and graduate chapters across the nation and was the first to establish a Greek-letter college sorority in Africa.

The ladies of Alpha Beta Chapter strive to uphold the sorority ideals of sister love, scholarship, service, and finer womanhood.

Nathaniel Alonzo Gillespie, Dillard's new basketball coach, who has excelled as a football player, basketball player, and tennis player, for the first time in his 16-year coaching career will be focusing his attention on basketball only. He succeeds coach John O. Brown who, after a career of 19 seasons as basketball coach, voluntarily gave up the helm.

Gillespie, a Tampa, Florida native, where he attended Middleton Senior High School, ushers a new era in the Blue Devil's sports arena, and it is hopeful that he will pen positive results in Dillard's record book.
